Due to the editorial policies of our journal, from now on we will accept submissions only from Brazilian authors. Your paper has already been evaluated, and was REFUSED in the RGSA journal, but can be ACCEPTED in the Journal of Law and Sustainable Development, which is also indexed in SCOPUS and Q2 Scimago, serves as a dynamic forum for understanding and advancing scientific consensus in the field of law and sustainable development.

The reviewers recommended that the following details must be observed in your paper:

- The abstract should be in the structured model like other articles published in the journal.
- The article must necessarily be divided into: 1. Introduction (in running text, without subheadings, presenting contextualization, objective or research question and justification), 2. Theoretical Referential, 3. Methodology, 4. Results and Discussion, 5. Conclusion, 6) References.

We are adopting this procedure, to maintain our indexing since it is a journal focused on Brazilian authors and to develop science and our scientific community in our country.

Thank you for your understanding and We are available for further doubts.
